A Business Directory.

In conformity with a mode of advertising found convenient, and indeed necessary in other cities, we have determined to commence a Business Directory in the Union, its wide and numerous circulation fitting it peculiarly for the purpose. The directory will contain the names and business of all men or persons, or of those advertising themselves, who have had, or still have, a particular character, or are "drugs," "law," "dry goods," etc. The addition of cards to appear in the "Nashville Union Directory" will be $15 for one year, or $9 for six months, which is the shortest period for which a card will be taken.

The Funnels.—The remains of President Lincoln will be buried at Springfield, Illinois, to-day.

U.S. REARAD'S Return.—The election of two Senators to the United States Senate takes place this morning. The session will be of great interest.

Belliger General Miller will review the Garrison of Nashville this afternoon at 3 o'clock on the Grassy White Pike, immediately outside the walls near the Penitentiary.

Buses Society.—An adjourned meeting of the Davidson County Buses Society will be held on Monday evening, the 4th inst., at 8 o'clock, in the Lecture Room of the Second Presbyterian Church, at which time officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

The party consisting of Messrs. Leander Tompkins, John Taylor and James Burnett, whom we stated in our issue of yesterday were arrested for robbery near the Bell's View Hospital were exonerated from the charge preferred against them, when brought to trial, and honorably discharged. It gives us pleasure to make this statement as the parties are mostly young men.

Nashville Manufacturer.—The manufacturer of carriages, buggies and other vehicles, is carried on in Nashville with a degree of skill and excellence nowhere surpassed, as will be seen by any visiting the establishment of Myers & Hunt, 12 North Meridian street. Express wagon, carriage, light road wagons and sulki's, are all made there, and a large stock of every kind of vehicle is kept on hand. See their advertisement.

New Theatre.—Waiting for the verdict, is the suggestive name of a new piece to be produced to-night. This play is full of stirring incident, keeping the interest of the audience from the start. Comedy, drama and all the various scenes of trial and punishment are portrayed. "Uncle Tom's Cabin," the great production of American genius, will shortly be produced. The ladies will learn with pleasure that another performance will take place on Monday. It is for the benefit of Mr. J. Hunt.

The BELMONT DRAISIET, which arrived about eight days ago from Memphis on the Mississippi river, at Belmont's Landing on the Arkansas shore, was one of the most fatal marine disasters that ever happened on this continent, the loss of life being twice as large as that in any similar accident that we can recall. There were two thousand three hundred persons on board, and at least fifteen hundred of them perished! The explosion of the Beltnet will long be remembered by all who witnessed or heard of the western waters.

REBELLION'S COST.—As usual there is a great number of delinquents before this Court yesterday. Drunkenness constituted the chief item for consideration. The offenders were fined and lectured. Several cases of disorderly conduct were tried and the result, we hope, will promote the peace of the community. The trials of those who were nothing of greater interest before the Court than those above, and a few other offenses of minor importance.

Coca & Tassel.—This firm has received the Louisville Journal and Press of the 3d and Cincinnati Gazette and Commercial of the 2d.

WHISKEY TO SOLDIERS.—Michael Monahan, government employee, believing that the approach of peace would soon deprive him of employment, endeavored to commence a new business, and went into the liquor trade. Being a native of Ireland he was well known, and taking up a strong class of customers, and gotten the Provost Marshal's register yesterday, as having been guilty of selling whisky to soldiers.

A GOOD ESTABLISHMENT.—We refer our numerous readers to the advertisement of Messrs. Paul & Rauh in to-day's paper. They propose to do a general Forwarding and Express business, and to receive all kinds of packages, including implements, Carriages, Buggies, and Wagon-Makers material. Mr. Paul is man of great experience in the Commission and Forwarding business, having been engaged in it for a number of years in Columbus, Ohio. Mr. Rauh, the junior partner, was formerly a rock-teller in the First National Bank of this city, for some time, and gave entire satisfaction, both in the offices and to numerous of that institution. Paul & Rauh's business is well conducted, and will be the most improved pattern, and their propose to keep open and ready. Now, that "this cruel war is over" the public will be ready to turn their attention to the insidious occupation of filling the soil, and they will bid up right kind of implements at Paul & Rauh's.

OLD THEATRE.—Laura Keene never made a more profound impression than she is now making on the public mind. The unexpected, early natural death of actress, in which is incomparably attractive. To-night she plays Mrs. Barry Steenkamp in "The Foster Brother, or the Wives of Ireland." Harry Hawk plays Larry. This piece is illustrative of Irish life, manners, and superstitions, and will be found eminently amusing.

TRUSTORY AGENCY.—J. C. Callicott, Trustory Agent at this place, has been promoted to a more extensive field of duty. He leaves Nashville for Charleston, where the Government Treasury office of the whole State of South Carolina, and the lower portion of Georgia, will be committed to his care. Every confidence and trust placed in him has been repaid. His chief clerk, a gentleman whose exemplary and obliging disposition have gained for him the respect of all. Jas. R. Dillen, Esq., the respected Representative of Giles county in the Legislature of the State. This gentleman's energy, knowledge of business, and acquaintance with our commercial position and the wants of our merchants, give assurance that this agent will be of great service to all. We learn, that, with the exception mentioned above, the clerks in the office will remain.
